2606 RR 620 N is a truly distinctive property ideally located between Lakeway and Steiner Ranch, offering a rare blend of luxury, functionality, and future potential. Currently utilized as luxury office space, the property could easily be converted back to residential use, offering even greater flexibility for future owners. Originally built as the caretaker's home for a 50-acre waterfront estate, the property was completely reimaged in 2017 into a high-design, luxury office space that has served as a corporate headquarters. This thoughtfully transformed space serves as a refined environment for daily operations, client entertainment, and private events. Set on a gated one-acre lot within Austin's ETJ in western Travis County, the property offers unmatched flexibility and a wealth of future possibilities. The property encompasses approximately 2,990 square feet of interior space across two beautifully designed structures. Building 1 currently serves as the principal's office and features a welcoming foyer, two private offices, a conference room, full kitchen, mud room, private bathroom with shower, and generous closet and storage space. Building 2 includes a receptionist desk, reception lounge, copy room, four private offices, co-working space, second conference room, kitchen, and two private bathrooms. Design and craftsmanship are evident throughout, with bespoke finishes, custom millwork, architectural detailing, and thoughtful landscaping that reflect a commitment to quality and aesthetics. Outside, the property is enhanced by an in-ground pool, hot tub, lush landscaping, and ample parking—all fully fenced and gated.
