Commercial Lease on 0.50 Acres

T P I, Highland Village, TX

This church building is unique and such a hidden gem. Built in 1980, this single-story property has so much character. The exterior includes beautiful pathways, custom rock and stone, and bright red doors that are hard to miss. It is tucked in a quiet and safe neighborhood. This property is down the street as The Village Church. There is striking foliage outside and views of other homes in the community. This church is minutes away from Lake Lewisville. It has been maintained to serve many purposes. There are two working bathrooms and a stage located inside. There are clearly marked restrooms and exit signs. This property has a very open floor plan. There are two entrances, double doors as the main entrance and a back door hidden on the side of the building. There are windows all around that allow a beautiful natural lighting. This well-kept church and community is a must see.
