2 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,304 sqft
Residential on 0.11 Acres

Bellevue Hill Add, Fort Worth, TX

Welcome to 2250 Lipscomb Street, a meticulously reimagined, fully renovated, bungalow with a designer's eye in every detail. This historic home has been completely renewed with fresh paint, new kitchen and baths, and a cohesive palette of curated lighting and statement pieces while preserving the architectural integrity that makes Fairmount so beloved. A picture-perfect picket fence, and cozy front porch ground the home in its era while original hardwoods and timeless finishes deliver an elevated level of polish. The kitchen is equal parts function and finesse, centered by a gas range and framed by refined surfaces, integrated front dishwasher, custom cabinetry, and an eye-catching breakfast bar. Bathrooms serve as tranquil retreats with sophisticated tile selections, sleek fixtures, and a clean, modern sensibility that never competes with the home's historic charm. Light-filled living and dining spaces flow with intent, creating an atmosphere that's simultaneously welcoming and quietly luxurious. Outside, the private backyard offers room to unwind, garden, or play. Situated on one of Fairmount's most desirable blocks, you're just minutes from Magnolia Avenue, neighborhood parks, and some of Fort Worth's best local spots. This is a rare opportunity to own a fully renovated historic home that honors its past while offering everyday comfort and style, schedule your tour today!
